

Common Signs and Symptoms for Cancer

- Unexplained weight loss.

- Thickening or lump in any part of the body.
- Unusual breast changes (lumps, discharges, etc.).
- Persistent cough or coughing up blood.
- Hoarseness that lasts for a long time.
- Blood in stool.

Do not hesitate to discuss any unusual symptoms with your primary healthcare provider

Common Signs and Symptoms of Cancer

- Changes in urination or changes in bladder function.

- Difficulty swallowing.
- Changes in bowel habits (constipation or diarrhea for long time).
- Unexplained vaginal bleeding.
- Sores that do not heal.
- Unexplained fever.

Do not hesitate to discuss any unusual symptoms with your primary healthcare provider

